

Agenda: ReGeneration 2030 Summit, 24-26 August 2019, Åland Islands

SATURDAY 24.8		Hang-arounds
Venue: City Hall of Mariehamn, (Torggatan 17, 22100 Mariehamn)
14.30-15.00	Registration
15.00-15.05	Opening Hosts: Karin Bylund & Jonas Færgeman, Steering Committee members of ReGeneration 2030 Welcome by Tatiana Lanshina & Pontus Ambros, Chair & Vice Chair of ReGeneration 2030 Steering Committee	Open for the public
15.05-15.15	Opening speech Sigurður Ingi Jóhannsson, Icelandic Cooperation Minister, leading the Icelandic presidency of the Nordic Council of Ministers	Open for the public
15.15-15.35	How to bring about change: From peaceful relations via the Bärkraft movement into ReGeneration 2030 Petra Granholm, the Åland Peace Institute Jonathan Vik, Chair of the Åland Youth Environment Movement	Open for the public
15.35-15.40	Video-message Paula Lehtomäki, Secretary General of the Nordic Council of Ministers	Open for the public
15.40-16.10	Getting to know each other & defining our culture and expectations Ronja Teschendorf, Olga Sobota & Yana Kachenyuk – ReGeneration 2030 Summit Working Group
16.10-17.00	Market of group themes The facilitators present the six different themes
17.00-17.30	Division into 6 thematic groups After the presentations, the participants get some time to decide which group to join
17.30-17.45	Coffee break
17.45-19.00	Each group meets to get to know each other and prepare for the next day They are to identify: 1) Challenges within the theme 2) Vision for the theme During Sunday, the themes will explore 1 and 2 in order to identify solutions
19.00-20.00	Dinner Hosted by the City of Mariehamn, speech by City Director, Barbara Heinonen
20.00-23.30	HållbArt Festival in the Mariehamn City park with artists, speeches and activities Arranged in partnership with the Bärkraft.ax Network, the Åland University of Applied Sciences and their Student Union, the Nordic Institute on Åland, the Museum of Åland, Emmaus Åland, Red Cross Åland and the EU-project A Safe Harbour	Open for the public

SUNDAY 25.8

Venue: Åland University of Applied Science ("Högskolan Norra", Neptunigatan 17, 22100 Mariehamn)

08.30-09.00	Doors opened
09.00-09.30	Introduction of the day in the auditorium
09.30-10.30	Start of thematic sessions Each thematic group focuses on their theme with their facilitators Objective: Explore the challenges and visions to identify solutions that we can collectively promote
Thematic group 1: Food Waste - Zane Gailīte, Green Liberty Thematic group 2: Green Fashion - Dace Akule, Green Liberty Thematic group 3: Zero Waste - Liisa Aavik, Zero Waste blogger from Estonia Thematic group 4: Everyday Private Consumption - Alexandra Davidsson, Medveten Konsumtion Thematic group 5: Circular Economy - Matleena Moisiö & Salaado Qasim, UN Youth of Finland Thematic group 6: Towards a Healthy and Sustainable Food System - Amanda Wood, Nordic Food Lab / Stockholm Resilience Centre
10.30-10.45	Coffee break
10.45-12.00	Continuation of thematic sessions Each group 1) recaps their morning 2) decide which concrete solutions to continue with, and 3) how to divide the group and attend the afternoon sessions
12.00-13.15	Lunch: Delivered to the University by the climate smart restaurant Emmaus Returcafé
Afternoon 13.15-16.30: Methodological workshops: The thematic groups split themselves up in different sessions around methods that will help form their initiatives. Each session is done twice, so there is a chance to participate in two sessions per participant. Objective: To learn how to promote/implement solutions and receive inspiration on how to get engaged.
	Workshop 1: International Cooperation for Achieving Climate Smart lifestyles - Olga Zuin, Council of the Baltic Sea States
	Workshop 2: The Åland Bärkraft example for inspiration - Petra Granholm, Åland Peace Institute
	Workshop 3: The Good Life Goals - Aina Eriksson, Stefanie Chan, Stockholm Environment Institute
	Workshop 4: Ecolabeling: How to understand what is green and not – Corporate Responsibility - Zane Gailīte & Dace Akule, Green Liberty
	Workshop 5: Action Plan: The circular campaign White Monday - Alexandra Davidsson, Medveten Konsumtion / Responsible Consumption
	Workshop 6: Dialogue with high-level politicians from Iceland, Åland & Lithuania
	Workshop 7: Harnessing the Power of Ordinary People - Nirmala Nair, The School of Practical Sustainability

13.15-13.30	Introductions Each facilitator presents their workshop briefly
13.30-14.50	First round of the 7 afternoon workshops
14.50-15.00	Break
15.00-16.20	Second round of the 7 afternoon workshops
16.20-16.35	Coffee break
16.35-18.30	Each thematic group meets back together to share ideas Objective: Finalise the 1) Solutions 2) Methods to promote these solutions 3) How to present the ideas on the last day
18.30-20.30	Dinner: Hosted by Ålandsbanken: CEO Peter Wiklöf gives a presentation on how a bank can be climate responsible
20.30-21.30	Optional: Presentation preparations Participants may work on their presentations if needed

MONDAY 26.8		Hang- arounds
Venue: Åland Parliament (Strandgatan 37, 22100 Mariehamn)
08.00-08.30	Group meetings The groups finish the details of their presentations
08.30-09.50	Presentations and discussion Each thematic group present their ideas After the presentations, the participants will evaluate the solutions and ideas together Collectively, the concrete points in the presentations will form an Action Plan for the coming year until the next Summit	Open for the public
09.50-10.00	Break
10.00-10.50	Panel Session: “Sustaining the Movement” Moderated by Birgitta Englin, Global Utmaning (Global Challenges) Participants: Jussi Nissi, Agnė Dapkuvienė and more to be confirmed	Open for the public
10.50-11.15	Open up for interactions Birgitta Englin, Global Utmaning	Open for the public
11.15-11.30	Conclusions Commitments to the Action Plan Closing remarks by Tatiana Lanshina & Pontus Ambros, Chair & Vice Chair of ReGeneration 2030	Open for the public
11.30-12.30	Speech by Nina Fellman, Nordic Cooperation Minister of the Åland Provincial Government Lunch: Hosted by the Head of the Åland Provincial Government, Katrin Sjögren

OPTIONAL SPIN-OFF PROGRAMMONDAY 26.8*14.00-22.00

14.00-16.00	Education for the future: The Sustainable University The Åland University of Applied Sciences invites a panel of ReGeneration 2030 participants to give input on how the university could be the leading Baltic Sea university on sustainability. The public are invited to come and listen. Location: University South, Navigationssskolegränd 2
16.00-17.00	Hanging in the city centre Ice cream and snacks at own expense
17.30-18.30	Dinner at own expense
19.00-19.45	Activism now and then – a talk on the Baltic Sea Festival The public are welcomed to the Alandica Culture and Congress Centre to listen to a talk about activism now and then within the frames of the Baltic Sea Festival. The talk is recorded on the stage and broadcasted on the upcoming Friday with tens of thousands of viewers. Tatiana Lanshina, Chair of ReGeneration 2030 Jochen Lamp, Baltic Sea Fund award winner 2019 Moderated by Hanna Malmodin, Swedish Radio Journalist
20.00-22.00	Classical Music Concert at the Baltic Sea Festival After the talk, the classical music concert will be streamed to the Alandica Culture and Congress Centre. The concert is conducted by the young Finnish Klaus Mäkelä. Participants of the ReGeneration 2030 Summit are admitted for free.