

Agenda 2020 Digital Summit

Thursday 20/8

Welcome in local hubs

12:00 - 13:00

Time to register and meet the other in the local hub. Open space for local hub to do what they want.

Formal opening of the meeting in hubs and online

13:00 - 13:15

Planting a seed: A short inspirational video setting the tone for the summit, and a teaser for the coming cultural activities during the summit, hosted by NIPÅ, Nordic Institute on Åland and the HållbArtfestival (Sustainability art festival).

A warm welcome

13:15-13:30

Jonas Faergeman, chair of the ReGeneration 2030 steering committee makes a welcome speech. Jonas works as a Climate Reality Leader for the Climate Reality Project, a global organisation spreading awareness and educating on climate change.

Around the region with our host

13:30-13:45

Karin Bylund, secretary of the ReGeneration 2030 steering committee, takes us around the region and let us meet the local hubs. Karin will be the online host for the summit. Karin works as a project manager at the Gothenburg Centre for Sustainable Development

ACTER - How to revolutionise the way we solve global challenges.

13:45-14:15

Emil Vincentz will introduce ACTER, a digital collaboration platform built to accelerate action on global challenges, including the UN sustainable development goals. He will showcase how it will be used by both people and organisations, such as ReGeneration 2030 and how it will radically change the way we as humanity work together."

See presentation

Coffebreak

14:15-14:30

Workshop cross borders

14:30 - 15:30

Cooperation and ice-breaker activities. Getting to know each other, despite of being spread out.

Inspiration: Youth with huge impact

15:30-16:00

Annika Lepistö, Nordic Youth delegation and advisory group for Biodiversity Theme: How young people are getting real impact in global negotiations on new common goals for biodiversity, and how youth can get impact in other issues as well.

See presentation

Inspiration: Clean games - playful way to help nature

16:00-16.30

Speakers from the russian organisation Clean Games explains how competitions on collecting litter and sorting it out has been spread worldwide and provides a playful way to change mindsets and behaviour.

See presentation

Panel discussion: Young people leading the way to a sustainable economy

16:30-17:45

Young innovators and entrepreneurs from across the Baltic Sea Region discuss with the participants and researcher Alberto Giacometti from the the BeUBio project.

See the discussion

Around the region with our host

17:45-18:00

Our online host, Karin Bylund, summarizes the day .

Around the region with our host

17:45-18:00

Our online host, Karin Bylund, summarizes the day .

Dinnertime

18:00

Have a meal with the others in your hub or with your online friends.

Movie time - Washed ashore

19:00

All summit participants have been challenged to make a photo/film of trash in a creative way. The results will be a short movie we watch together. Inspired from the exhibition "Washed Ashore" - Art of rubbish at Nordens institut på Åland.

Friday 21/8

Welcome in hubs and online

12:00 - 12:15

Karin Bylund, welcomes everyone to day 2 of the summit and checks in with some of the hubs.

Meditative Powertalk: Environment x Humans

12:15 - 12:30

Michael Polejaev and Maxi Shilov, creators of Aestetik Documentary Film and founders of New Visual Culture Foundation, will share their big vision on the impact on environment of humans and their activity today and tomorrow in a form of meditation. (Hosted by NIPÅ)

UN Youth of Finland with Professor Tony Addison: The more the merrier - Partnerships for Sustainable Development

12:30- 13:45

Tony Addison, Professor of Economics at the University of Copenhagen and former Chief Economist and Deputy Director of UNU-WIDER in Helsinki, gives an expert speech tying together partnerships in developmental economics with examples on extractive industries. The following online workshop will provide interactive learning on SDG 12 (sustainable consumption and production) and SDG 17.

See presentation

Politics: Why youth is important and what youth can achieve

14:00-14:30

Paula Lehtomäki, general secretary of the Nordic Council of Ministers about youth involvement and sustainability.

See presentation and Interview with Karin Bylund

Workshop : Action workshop

14:30- 16:30

Final workshop in local hubs and online. Time to explore why youth voices are important, how they can be supported and what practical actions the participants want to take that can be implemented until next year. We will end the workshop with each hub presenting their ideas for future work by uploading their final document .

Closing words from steering committee

16:30-16:45

End of the summit online

16:45-17:00

Our host Karin Bylund summarises the outcome and results of this year's summit and we will say goodbye to all the hubs and see you soon again (online) and next year on the Åland Islands!

Dinner

17:00-17:45

Dinner together with other participants, online or IRL.

Live concert från Åland

18:00-18:45

Live concert from Åland with Yohan och Emil on NIPÅ live.